

PRIVATE RESIDENCE CROSS-SECTION

MJ Neal Associates is a general practice architectural firm specializing in meeting clients, friends, and communities needs. Having been in existence for over twenty years, our list of project types, clients and services continues to grow, while sustaining excellent client relationships and upholding our design standards. The success of a project begins with a few key principles, and our broad experience base can provide the foundation to apply those principles to your project.

